TAKING PRECAUTION.

British Fleet to be Mobilized Off the Coast of Ireland.

WARNING TO NATIONS

It is Intimated That it is to Check any Move by any Country to interfere With the War in South Africa.

London, Jan. 31.—It is now known that the cabinet devoted much of its discussion on Saturday to the mobilization of the fleet. Nothing was settled except that, until further security to the home coasts have been obtained by naval preparations, the Eighth division shall not be sent to South Africa.

On Monday the admirability issued orders that the channel squadron instead of leaving Portland for Gibraltar as previously directed, shall assemble on Feb. 5, off Eddystone and proceed to Bantrey for a fortnight's exercise off the Irish coast, thus keeping in home waters for a time.

This decision to delay the eighth division at a time when reinforcements are so urgently required may mean only that transports are not yet available and that the division will embark when the shipping is ready.

The mobilization of reserved warships if such a course shall be determined upon, would be of the utmost importance. There is nothing in the intelligence possessed by the public to cause the cabinet's prolonged discussion of this matter and the inference is that the fleet may be mobilized as a general warning to other countries to keep their hands off the Transvaal situation, or the ministry may have definite knowledge that the neutral powers purpose to take some advantages elsewhere while England is busy in South Africa.

One thing is certain, 10,000 men all ready to go to South Africa are detained for reasons of which the public has no knowledge.

There is talk of 47 military battalions being embodied. These are all of the militia not previously warned. A sharp lookout is being kept on volunteers for the various South African regiments. The Daily Chronicle says:

"Three suspicious characters were rejected by headquarters in one regiment Monday. Two were unmistakably of Boer origin. The third, whose English English was faulty, had been a German officer."

Such scraps of information as can be gathered regarding the movements of the armies in the field seem to indicate that the relief of Ladysmith has been abandoned for the present and that concentration of the British for an invasion of the Free State is in progress. In addition to General Kelley-Kenny's movement General Brabant, chief of the Cape Colonial, has arrived at Sterkstroom.

The native report is that three Boer guns have been removed from Spytfontein to Kimberley. The Boers are apparently making a special effort to reduce the place quickly. The Kimberley garrison was safe last Sunday.

Davis Goes to the Front.

Pretoria, Jan. 29.—It is officially announced that the Boer casualties at Spion kop were 53 killed and 120 wounded.

Webster Davis, former assistant secretary of the interior at Washington, U. S. A., accompanied by United States Consul Hollis and the state attorney, started today for the Boer laager at Ladysmith in the president's saloon carriage.

Report from Ladysmith.

Ladysmith, Jan. 28.—Heliographed to Swartz kop, north of Tugela.—News of the prolongation of the siege, resulting in Buller's failure, is received with fortitude. We can hold on as the garrison is healthier. We can hear Gen. Buller's guns still working. It is rumored in camp that he is advancing in another direction. The Boer laagers are again full of men who returned from upper Tugela. Boers also have taken up a new position in the hills near Colenso, where they are great in force. Reinforcements are apparently arriving from the Transvaal. Large bodies of Boers are visible between here and Potgieter's drift.

May Make Another Attempt.

Cape Town, Jan. 31.—General Buller still holds Tugela drift and will possibly renew an attempt to force his way through the Boer defenses before long. In any case, Ladysmith is capable of holding out for a considerable time.

Wounded Coming.

Spearmans Camp, Jan. 31.—Many of the wounded are arriving. The Lancashire lost heaviest. There was no panic when the troops retired.

Rumor of More Trouble.

Paris, Jan. 31.—There is a rumor in official circles, but is not traceable to authoritative sources, that a rebellion occurred among the Soudanese troops in Khartoum. There are only 150 white British soldiers under the command of a major. The Soudanese force consists of two battalions with a total of 1500 men.

Deafies Americans Were Shot.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Ambassador Clayton, at the City of Mexico, has advised from General Torres denying that six Americans were shot by his orders.

WILL BE NEUTRAL.

The United States Government Will Not Take Sides in the Transvaal War.

Washington, Jan. 31.—All information which has reached the president is to the effect that Great Britain does not desire mediation and, though it is understood that the Boer Government is anxious for peace, the statements made by Dr. Leyds, its representative in Europe seem to favor a continuance of the war. The president certainly will not interfere unless both governments request the use of his good offices.

This statement, made by an official of the administration after the meeting of the cabinet, may be regarded as authoritative. It is understood that there was some informal discussion at the cabinet meeting based upon the dispatches and resolutions which have been received by the president urging him to take action which will bring about an end to the war.

The cabinet is unanimously of the opinion that the United States is not concerned in the affairs of the South Africa republic and consequently would have no justification in intervening. Members of the cabinet say an effort is being made to make political capital out of the attitude of the president, whose action in refusing to interfere is being interpreted in some quarters as an indication of sympathy for Great Britain.

The administration, it is stated, has pursued and is pursuing an attitude of neutrality, favoring neither one nor the other governments. It was said at the state department that this government has received no communication enclosing $37000 for transportation to President Kruger to be used by the Boer government in the prosecution of the war. It is stated by the officials that it would be a breach of neutrality for the United States to transmit funds which, if intended for the use of the government in its military operations, are certainly contraband and liable to seizure.

The agent of this government at Pretoria is supplying the British prisoners with funds placed at his disposal by the British government, but the proposition for the United States to forward money to the Boer government is an entirely different matter and Secretary Hay will undoubtedly decline to act as an agent for any such purposes.

Brilliant Perihelion.

Moline, Ill., Jan. 31.—Probably the most brilliant perihelion ever witnessed in this latitude was observed here about 9:35 o'clock Monday. First an immense, perfect arch, as brilliantly colored as the finest summer rainbow, spanned the southern heavens, overarched the sun. Above this was a segment of an arch reversed. Then there was a double arch, joining its inner ends at the junction with the sun itself. An immense arch also passed through the sun at its center, making five distinct arches, and last of three brilliant crosses of dazzling light, one directly over the sun, and one on either side at the conjunction of the arches. The phenomena attracted much attention.

How to Contribute Sermons.

Atchison, Kan., Jan. 31.—There has been talk that E. W. Howe, editor of the Atchison Globe, will occupy Rev. B. M. Sheldon's pulpit while Rev. Sheldon is running the Topeka Capital, and that Howe would attempt to show that preachers have as many faults as editors. Concerning the same, Mr. Howe says editorially in his paper, that he has not been invited to occupy Rev. Sheldon's pulpit, but that he had been invited to contribute a daily sermon to the Topeka Journal during the week Rev. Sheldon is criticizing newspapers. He has accepted the Topeka Journal's invitation.

Antitrust Law Valid.

Columbus, O., Jan. 30.—The supreme court has handed down a decision which sustains what is generally known as the Valentine-Stewart antitrust law, which prohibits the combination of companies or firms for illegal purposes which are therein outlined. The decision is given in a demurrer filed by the Standard Oil Company on the ground that the law was unconstitutional. The investigation was that it was instituted by Attorney-General Monett against the Standard Oil Company, Buckeye Pipe Line and Solar Refining Company.

Texas Legislature.

Austin, Jan. 31.—The business transacted by the house and senate yesterday was routine and unimportant. Several resolutions and bills were introduced but they, too, amounted to but little.

STREET WORK.

Street Superintendent J. D. Conlee has put his force to work on the south end of Main street, under the direction of the street committee of the city council. Plows and scrapers were going yesterday; the work advanced rapidly and shows up well. Work on Main street first will be of two-fold benefit. First it will benefit all the people of the town and all who come here; and second, it will be an object lesson in street improvement that will tend to aid in carrying the work on until the streets are fixed throughout the city. The people appear to be responding cheerfully to the demands of the ordinance for street work of able bodied men between the ages of 21 and 45, notwithstanding the seneiment in the minds of many that the measure works a hardship on some. We are fully aware of the force of these arguments, and while noting that the same plan has worked well in other places, we also take pleasure in stating that in some other places where it is in vogue, property owners over the prescribed age limit have in some instances voluntarily contributed the prescribed amount either in labor or money to the work. It occurs to us that this shows a proper spirit and is encouraging to those who have to do the work under the letter of the law. No town was ever built up and no movement was ever successful in the fullest measure without the unanimous sentiment and effort of the people behind it. With such united sentiment and action the matter of street improvement would soon resolve itself into an easy problem, and those who voluntarily contributed to the work would be profited many fold by the improvement for their additional outlay. We throw out these suggestions for what they are worth, and would be glad to see a united citizenship move forward to street improvement, factory building and progress along all lines.

The shooting of Senator Goebel was the act of a cowardly assassin which has aroused the indignation of men of all parties throughout the land, and no punishment which could be meted out to the guilty would be too severe. Truly, Kentucky is in a bad way when an assassin may lurk in her capitol and pour a murderous fire from its windows. It is high time that the people of the state regardless of party, should unite and stamp out the kind of partisan politics which breeds nothing but disorder and death.

UNDER MARTIAL LAW

State Militia Placed in Control of Kentucky's Capital.

SIEGE IS DECLARED.

Governor Taylor Orders the Legislature to Meet at London on Feb. 6.
Democratic Efforts to Hold a Session Thwarted.

Frankfort, Jan. 31.—Governor Taylor early this morning issued a proclamation declaring a state of insurrection existed in Kentucky, particularly in the city of Frankfort, and because of this he adjourned the legislature to meet at London, Laurel county, Feb. 6. The Democratic members of the legislature decline to accept the adjournment and decided to meet elsewhere.

All legislators approaching the capitol building were stopped by soldiers and Taylor's proclamation read to them.

Then the legislature, as a body, ran through the streets to the opera house, to find a company of soldiers drawn up before it.

Then the legislature decided to deliberate in the courthouse and tore through the streets in that direction. A second company of soldier beat the lawmakers to the goal, and they then took to the streets looking for a place in which to hold a session and declare Goebel governor of Kentucky.

It is now certain the legislature will seat Goebel at the first session which it holds. If he is seated by joint ballot the Republicans will pay no attention to the matter and refuse to surrender any of the offices. They will resist flatly any efforts of the Democrats to seat the officers by joint ballot.

Governor Taylor and attorneys remained all Tuesday night in the state house, as threats are said to have been made against all of them, and it was thought a wise thing for them to remain there, besides they would be in a better position to resist the Democrats should they undertake to seize the reigns of the government by force.

London is a mountain village of 1000 inhabitants, 70 miles southeast of Lexington, and is the county seat of Laurel county. The only public building there is the courthouse, and that is not large enough to hold the house and senate of the Kentucky legislature.

Many of the Republican members left for London upon the proclamation of Governor Taylor, and others are preparing to go, but the Democrats will not go.

The court of appeals has adjourned indefinitely, refusing to set while the militia is here.

The Democratic senators finally held a meeting in the Capitol hotel, but adjourned subject to a call of the president.

Late in the afternoon Governor Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of Speaker Trimble, charging him with conspiracy to overthrow the government. The warrant was placed in Adjutant General Collier's hands for service. Trimble could not be found.

NO HOPE FOR GOEBEL.

His Physicians Believe He Can Never Recover from His Wound.

Frankfort, Jan. 31.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon the physicians had given up all hope for Senator Goebel's recovery. His fever was rising and they believed the end was near.

William Goebel was slightly better at daybreak this morning than he had been at any time since 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Physicians, however, hold out no strong hopes for his recovery and say the chances are still very great that his wound will terminate fatally.

During the early part of Tuesday night he failed steadily and about 11 o'clock it was thought he would not last much longer. About midnight he rallied, and from that time until this morning he held his own. He was troubled during the night with nausea, which physicians declared were bad systems. His internal hemorrhage has ceased. The courage of the wounded man has never forsaken him for an instant and when able to talk insisted that he would surely recover.

The bullet which struck Mr. Goebel was fired from a window in the center of the third story of the office building just east of the capitol. That window was raised about eight inches from the sill to permit an unobstructed passage of the bullet when Mr. Goebel should come within range. Both Chinn and Lillard assert that while the first shot came from the direction of the window in the third story, there were other shots fired from different portions of the building. Some of those who heard the shots say that at least one shot was fired from the office of the secretary of state. This, however, is not credited as there were men in the office of the secretary of state who rushed to the window as soon as the shots were heard and all of them declare that no shots were fired from that part of the building.

The window in the third story was left open, no effort having been made to close it by the would be assassin while not another window in the building was opened, nor were there any places where bullets had been fired through them.

Whittaker was arrested as he came down the steps on the east side of the state office building, directly below the window from which the shots had been fired. As he reached the sidewalk and was hastening toward the scene of the shooting he was met by John E. Miles, who is 76 years old.

Without hesitation Miles threw his gun on Whittaker wounding his arms around him, calling loudly for help. In an instant Whittaker was surrounded by a group of men, many of them with drawn revolvers. He made no attempt to escape, knowing well that the slightest attempt to do so would have brought a dozen bullets into his body. He submitted quietly to a search which was quickly made of his clothing, the proceeds being three revolvers and one big knife.

A quick examination of the revolvers showed that none of them had been fired.

Few people believe Whittaker is guilty of the crime, but the fact that he was hastily leaving the building from which the shooting was done was enough to make trouble for him.

No progress has been made toward apprehending the man who did the shooting and is not likely that any will be made. To all appearances as much is known of the would be assassin today as will ever be known. The police have practically abandoned the case and there is nobody besides them to take up the case.

The force of mountaineers are still in the building from which the shots were fired and nobody has been allowed to enter it. Access is made still more difficult now by the force of soldiers which are stationed at every gate.

Nobody is admitted to the capitol grounds without a pass and passes are not issued in profusion by any means.

One thousand men with two Gatling guns are stationed in the capitol building and 300 more are expected.

GIVEN TO GOEBEL.

Contest Board Decides He Was Elected
Governor of Kentucky.

Frankfort, Jan. 31.—While William Goebel lay at the point of death in his room, as the result of an assassin's bullet, the contesting boards, which for two weeks had been listening to the evidence in his contest for the governor's chair, declared him entitled to the seat.

The boards having in charge the contests between Goebel and Taylor for governor, and Beckham and Marshall for lieutenant governor, met at 7 o'clock last night in the city hall to consider the evidence submitted to them and prepare their report to the legislature. A few legal authorities were read to them at the request of Senator Allen, who wished light shed upon a few doubtful points. The vote was then taken and by a strict party vote of 10 to 1 William Goebel was declared to have been legally elected governor of Kentucky.

The Beckham-Marshall contest was then voted upon, and a strict party vote of 9 to 2 settled this matter.

The Republicans will probably make application in the United States circuit court of Cincinnati for an injunction restraining Goebel and Beckham from taking their seats, and then the battle will be continued before Judge Taft of that court.

The Republican attorneys and Gov. Taylor are confident that at least a temporary injunction will be granted. The grounds upon which the injunction will be asked are the prejudice of the legislative body, the alleged unfitness of several members of the contest boards to sit in judgment upon the case, and several other grounds which the attorneys decline to discuss.

The attempted assassination of Senator Goebel precluded the advisability of a sitting of the contest boards yesterday afternoon, but at 5 p. m. the boards met in the city hall, having been refused admittance to the capitol building by the militia. It was a solemn assemblage of men who composed the gathering. Mr. Edelen, one of Taylor's counsel, said that it would be idle to argue the case in view of the state of mind generally prevalent. He asked for a postponement, but after several discussions, it was agreed that argument should be dispensed with and the boards decided to meet at 7 o'clock and receive the authorities cited by either side and then enter upon the consideration of the verdict.

Mr. Edelen and W. C. P. Breckinridge were the only attorneys of Governor Taylor present. Mr. Edelen said he asked for a postponement on his own responsibility, not having had time to confer with his colleagues. Colonel Bennett H. Young, for the contestants, followed Mr. Edelen and said the contestants waived the right of argument and would make none.

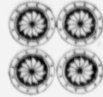

Colonel Breckinridge said that he had addressed a communication to the chairmen of the two boards, setting forth reasons why the argument should not proceed. He said the lives of the attorneys for Governor Taylor had been threatened.

"I have no fear for my personal safety," said Colonel Breckinridge. "I have felt that I should be here and no threats can deter me from what I regard as my duty." He said these threats, however, come from a source entitling them to serious consideration.

At the conclusion of the meeting the boards went into secret session and agreed as above reported. The minority report will be drawn up today.

MRS. JOHN H. WEBB.

Her Death Occurred in San Antonio Yesterday.

The sad but not unexpected news of the death of Mrs. John H. Webb was received here yesterday morning. Her death took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Calhoun, in San Antonio, at 3:45 a. m., and the remains will be brought here today for interment. The funeral will take place from the Methodist church this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock the service being conducted by the Dr. F. M. Law and Rev. E. L. Shettles.

Mrs. Webb, who was formerly Miss Mary Hadley Parker, was born in Alabama February 8, 1824, and was nearly 76 years of age. She was married to the late Dr. John H. Webb, Jan. 19, 1845, and moved with him to Bryan in 1870, making their home here until about three years ago, when they moved to San Antonio. She was the mother of ten children, the surviving members of the family being Mrs. J. W. Howell, Mrs. Fannie Calhoun, Mr. Robt. S. Webb, Mr. Jas. H. Webb and Mrs. M. H. James.

Mrs. Webb was a member of the Methodist church and a noble and devoted Christian woman whose life was spent in good deeds, and whose days were as the leaves of a finished volume, upon each page of which was written a blessing for those with whom she was associated. The united and profound sympathy of the whole community goes out to members of the family and many loved ones here.

SANFORD-SHEPARD.

Brilliant Wedding at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Allan D. Sanford, of Waco, and Miss M. Stella Shepard, of this city, were married here yesterday afternoon at the First Baptist church, Rev. J. D. West officiating.

The church was crowded with admiring friends of the popular couple, from Bryan and College and other cities in the state. The church was decorated with flowers and pot plants banked about the altar. Mrs. W. S. Wilson presided at the organ, the Mendelssohn wedding march being played, and Miss Marie Adams sang "O, Promise Me," with exquisite effect just preceding the ceremony.

Miss Ida Shepard, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Tom Lee, of Galveston, best man. The other attendants were Miss Sanford, of Covington, Tenn., and Mr. C. B. Shepard, Miss Josephine Clarke and Dr. Beville, of Waco, Miss Carnes and Mr. Robt. Astin, Miss Eubank, of Waco, and Mr. Bennett Hill, of Dallas, Miss Parker and Mr. E. E. Shumate, of Waco. Ushers, Prof. P. S. Tilson, Prof. Chas. Puryaar, Mr. Sam B. Wilson and Mr. Willie Johnson.

The bride wore a blue English whipcord tailor suit with lace vest over old rose brocade, turban to match and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids wore street dresses and carried pink carnations.

Mr. Sanford is a native of Tennessee, but has made his home in Waco for a number of years. He is a young man of high character, and successful in his chosen profession of law. He is city attorney of Waco, and very popular with the people of his home, and in other cities of the state where he is known.

Miss Shepard was raised in Bryan, and is known and loved by everybody here, and a great favorite in the best social circles throughout the state. She possesses rare tact and intellectuality, vivacity and a most truly lovable, well-poised womanly character.

The bride and groom, who were tendered a reception by Mrs. Shepard, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Howell Wednesday evening, left by the afternoon train yesterday for a visit to New Orleans, and for the home of the groom's father at Covington, Tenn., after which they will return to Waco.

SHOOTING AT WACO.

Antonio Pinto Is Dead and Joe Angelo Badly Wounded.

Waco, Tex., Jan. 31.—Antonio Pinto, aged 40, a married man, father of children, is dead at his residence with a bullet hole through his heart and Joe Angelo, a relative of Antonio Pinto has a bullet wound in the shoulder. Sam Angelo is in jail charged with shooting Antonio Pinto.

The parties are Sicilians and all are related to each other. Sam Angelo, who is in jail and Joe Angelo, who is wounded in the shoulder, are brothers.

The wife of Sam Angelo and the widow of Antonio Pinto, deceased, are sisters. No one knows the nature of the quarrel which appears to have been some family difficulty.

Joe Pinto, a nephew of Antonio Pinto, deceased, was in front of the store of the dead man on South Third street, near the public square, and Sam Angelo, who is a fruit peddler, driving all over the city and selling his wares from a wagon, came up and immediately an altercation commenced.

There were five pistol shots and when the smoke cleared away Antonio Pinto, the proprietor of the store, was dead and Joe Angelo was spurting blood from a flesh wound in his right shoulder.

The quarrel was between Sam Angelo and Joe Pinto, who is a young man. Antonio Pinto, the man who is dead rushed out of his store to keep the peace and was accidentally shot and killed.

The shot which struck Joe Angelo was also a wild shot, fired, the witnesses state, by his brother Sam.

The defendant's attorney's gave notice of appeal to the court of criminal appeals, now in session in Dallas.

Rockdale, Tex., Jan. 31.—News has reached here of the fatal burning of the 8-year-old son of B. F. Sidell, three miles west of here. The little fellow was playing around a fire in the yard when by some means his clothing caught on fire and before assistance reached him he was fatally burned. He only lived a few hours and succumbed to his injuries.

ANOTHER COMMISSION.

Five Persons to Form a Civil Government for the Philippines.

Washington, Jan. 31.—President McKinley will soon announce the appointment of a civil commission to be charged with the establishment of a civil government in the Philippines.

There will be five members of the commission, and Colonel Charles Denby, if he can be prevailed upon to go will probably be appointed chairman. Prof. Dean C. Worcester, also a member of the present Philippine commission, will be appointed a member of the new body.

It has been determined that there is no necessity for either a military or a naval man on the new commission, as its functions will be purely civil.

A third man, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the new body, is Dr. J. B. Angell, former minister to China and Turkey, and president of the University of Michigan, who was in Washington a few days ago.

MRS. LAWTON GRATEFUL.

She Weeps When Told That Money Was Raised in Her Behalf.

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—Until she reached this city Mrs. Lawton knew nothing of the fund raised for her by the American people. The news was taken aboard by Pilot Reed and communicated to Mrs. Lawton by Lieutenant Colonel Edwards, the dead soldier's adjutant general.

"Oh, how kind; how kind!" she sobbed and was so completely overcome she sank down upon the divan and cried like a child.

"It has always been Henry's ambition and mine," she said, "to have a home for the children, but I despaired of it." More she could not say.

Crude Petroleum as Fuel.

Coffeyville, Kan., Jan. 31.—An interesting experiment is being made at Sedan, 86 miles west of here, in the use of crude petroleum as fuel. The Sedan Milling company has contracted for a supply of oil from the county poor farm well, and is burning it instead of coal. A wagon load per day is consumed. The mill men say it is much cheaper than coal and more satisfactory. As it abounds in this section, it will form an important factor in the fuel question.

Another Decision.

Santa Fe, Jan. 31.—The Standard Oil company won in the fight the territory was waging on it, in an opinion handed down by the Territorial supreme court in the matter of the habeas corpus proceedings by B. G. Wilson, agent for the Continental Oil company. Wilson was granted the writ, and the opinion declares unconstitutional section 2 of the coal oil inspection law passed by the last legislature, virtually making the whole law non-effective.

Bank Robbery in Kansas.

Fredonia, Kas., Jan. 31.—The Citizens' Bank of Altoona, Kas., nine miles east of here, was robbed. It is said the robbers are members of a traveling gang. They cut a hole through the vault, and with the use of nitroglycerin, entered the outer wall of the safe, leaving the inner cash box undisturbed. Deputy Sheriff McCray, who visited the scene, states $720 in silver was taken. The robbers escaped.

Fire at Winfield.

Wichita, Kas., Jan. 31.—Fire destroyed the business portion of Winfield, a town of 6000 inhabitants, 40 miles south of here Tuesday night, and threatened the city building and county jail. The Hackney block, erected at a cost of $125,000 and its entire contents, were burned and 100 people made homeless. The Arlington hotel was destroyed and the Rutter livery barn was burned with all the horses.

Whole Family Poisoned.

Ava, Ill., Jan. 31.—The members of family of R. B. Looney of Degonia township, 10 miles southwest of Ava, became violently ill shortly after dinner. A physician was hastily summoned, and he found that they were poisoned. Antidotes were given, and the victims were rescued from danger. It is supposed the poisoning was caused by some baking powder used in making pastry.

Ultimatum to Turkey.

Constantinople, Jan. 31.—Owing to the refusal of the minister of justice to hand over a 15-year-old Italian girl, who had been placed in a harem, the Italian ambassador sent an ultimatum to the porte declaring that unless the girl was surrendered to the Italian embassy at once, diplomatic relations would be ruptured. It is believed the porte will yield.

Suffering at Loogootee.

Loogootee, Ind., Jan. 31.—The citizens of Loogootee are having their first winter experience with natural gas. The sudden and very severe cold weather caused the flow from the three wells to fail and much suffering is the result. Those who had coal stoves brought them into use again.

The Error Corrected.

Washington, Jan. 31.—In the house a bill was passed to correct an error in the last river and harbor bill relating to the appropriation for the improvement of Buffalo bayou and the Galveston ship channel.

Plague at Honolulu.

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—The steamer Australia from Honolulu has arrived here and brings the news that up to the time of her departure 41 deaths from the plague had occurred and there was a total of 52 cases.

Ordered to Bluefields.

New Orleans, Jan. 31.—Italy follows Norway's lead in ordering a warship to Bluefields in demanding damage claims.
